

The Goddess Festival 2011

Restoring The Balance

Artwork Submission

Deadline: January 31, 2011

Full out this form and either deliver it in person or mail it to: P. O. Box 4241, Fayetteville, AR 72702

Everyone is welcome to submit. Submit one form per piece of art. Acceptance of the proposal is based primarily on relevance to theme:

In ancient cultures where the Goddess was worshiped both women and men were honored as equals. With the rise of patriarchy many aspects of the Feminine Divine were suppressed and the presence of the Goddess was virtually eradicated. Today, our yearning for equality calls us to rise yet again with our questions and our unrest and to listen to the echoes in our hearts. We have enthusiastically joined in a global reemergence of the Goddess - a re-discovery of all that has been hidden for centuries.

We are seeking to Restore the Balance.
